

Detroit Partnership

Fact Sheet

On April 30, 2006 Detroit Partnership was approved by the Board of Directors of the Institute for Black Family Development.

The Detroit Partnership is the outcome of lessons learned from 1988 through 2006 with:

1. The Pastor's Development Program for 100 pastors in Mendenhall, MS from 1988 – 2000.
2. The Skillman Foundation Faith Based Initiative "A Call to Service" with 47 churches servicing 2,300 children and youth in Detroit, Michigan, from 2001 – 2006.
3. Convoy of Hope Superbowl XL Day of outreach with 2,100 volunteers from city and suburbia serving 7,825 Detroit Residents in February 2006.
4. Al Kuhnle encouragement and financial support through City Light.

Since April 30, 2006 Detroit Partnership has linked volunteers, money, services and in-kind contributions for:

1. 12,000 people being touched each year;
2. Over 800 people have verbalized a belief in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior;
3. Leadership In The Local Church course has trained 24 affiliate churches and Christian organizations;
4. 24 city and suburbia churches and Christian organizations have developed teams to deliver services in 12 neighborhoods;
5. Over 2,000 volunteers from the African American, Caucasian and Hispanic communities;
6. 35,000 volunteer hours for training, networking and serving children, youth and families in 12 neighborhoods;
7. $675,150.00 dollars of in-kind wages towards programs;
8. $62,215.00 dollars in cash contributions for programs;
9. $426,200.00 dollars worth of in-kind food, goods, products, services and supplies for programs;
10. For every $1.00 dollar we are able to leverage an additional $5.00 dollars.

Detroit.partnership@comcast.net
www.ifbfd.org click Detroit Partnership